

Lynn Emery
United States History 8th grade

+	MONDAY 11-12-18	TUESDAY 11-13-18	WEDNESDAY 11-14-18 conferences	THURSDAY 11-15-18 conferences	FRIDAY 11-16-18
CONTENT STANDARD	Geographers use published maps, sketch (mental) maps, and other geographic representations, tools, and technologies to acquire, organize, process, and report information from a spatial perspective.	Geographers use published maps, sketch (mental) maps, and other geographic representations, tools, and technologies to acquire, organize, process, and report information from a spatial perspective.	Geographers use published maps, sketch (mental) maps, and other geographic representations, tools, and technologies to acquire, organize, process, and report information from a spatial perspective.	Geographers use published maps, sketch (mental) maps, and other geographic representations, tools, and technologies to acquire, organize, process, and report information from a spatial perspective.
CONTENT OBJECTIVE: Measurable Outcome:	SWBAT demonstrate comprehension of continents and oceans (map/globe) using packet with questions. Daily geography sheet highlighting continents/oceans 70% accuracy	SWBAT demonstrate comprehension of how to use a map to located places on map using fill in the blank questions. Daily geography sheet Australia 70% accuracy	SWBAT demonstrate comprehension of locations of continents and oceans on map by writing/drawing a map of the world by memory	SWBAT to demonstrate comprehension of the use of a map to find seas located in the world using directions given, 80% accuracy	Review Day
LANGUAGE OBJECTIVE:	SWBAT orally explain the Relative location of continents/oceans using sentence stems of cardinal directions _____ is located the _____ of _____.	SWBAT orally explain how to use a map and the compass rose to locate places using a map of the world.	SWBAT orally explain the locations of continents and oceans on their map during presentation to class. South America is south of North America	SWBAT orally explain why it is easy to find Italy, India, and Japan using the shapes of the continents,
Vocabulary:	Absolute location Coordinates Eurasia Relative location Sea				